Important information

Risks and liability

Renter is aware that the use of a SUP (Stand Up Paddling) requires good physical condition that is confirmed with signature.

Renter bears full risk for the use of the materials as well as any harms to the renter and third persons. Wearing a lifejacket is voluntary. No party related to lessor, including staff of the town of Eschenbach, can be held liable.

Hints:

Every renter is liable for any damage or harm to third persons with his/her private third party liability insurance.

Renter is liable for any damage to the materials and equipment.

The Town of Eschenbach i.d.Opf. cannot be held liable for any accidents or loss of personal items.

The Town of Eschenbach i.d.Opf as lessor has the right to refuse the delivery of materials when the renter does not have the necessary qualifications.

If a lack of necessary qualifications for a safe use of the renter is revealed after the handover of materials or if the renter acts in contrary to the instructions the lessor has the right to withdraw from the contract and retain the rental fee.

The renter/user has to follow the instructions of the bath keeper and boat lessor in any case. In case of contraventions, especially when endangering the security of other swimmers and guests of the bath, the bath keeper and boat lessor of the Town of Eschenbach have the right to claim the return of materials and to end the rental.

In this case no refund of the rental fee will be given. In case that the Town of Eschenbach i.d.Opf. is – due to force majeure or regulatory action – obliged to make changes in the implementation of rentals or to cancel boat rentals no duty for compensations exists.

Rental fees must be paid in cash at the beginning of rental. The first hour is fully charged. Afterwards every 30 minutes are charged.

Renter is obliged to on-time return.
